

Rivista di
Diritto ed Economia dello Sport

PRESS RELEASE (Amalfi – Ravello, 19 May 2015)

The Sports Law and Policy Centre (SLPC) organizes the second edition of the Executive Programme in International Sports Law, 25-31 May 2015

Representatives from FIFA, UEFA, ECA, and other international sports associations will meet in Amalfi and Ravello to analyse the international sports regulations.

Under the direction of Michele Colucci and Salvatore Civile, leading experts of the sector will examine the relevant international football regulations as well as the latest CAS and FIFA case law.

They will provide an in-depth review of the new regulations on the FIFA intermediaries, the FIFA regulations on transfer of players, as well as the UEFA financial fair play.

Omar Ongaro (FIFA), Julien Zylberstein (UEFA), Wouter Lambrecht (CAS), W and other lawyers of great renown such as Massimo Coccia, Juan De Dios Crespo, Mario Gallavotti, Marketa Haindlova, Dennis Koolarad, Ettore Mazzilli, Luca Tettamanti will lead the working sessions.

Participants come from Azerbaijan, Belgium, Czech Republic, China, Cyprus, Denmark, France, Israel, Italy, Japan, Kenya, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, South Africa, The Netherlands and the United Arab Emirates.

For more information about the programme and the agenda please visit www.ravello-sportslaw.com and/or contact info@ravellosportslaw.com . Phone +39 338.5336511.