

PRESENTS

MASTER IN INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL LAW

A pioneering program worldwide where you will share a classroom with professionals from the most important institutions and law firms specialized in football law; a door opener for unique professional opportunities.

IF...

You are a Law graduate, whose aspiration is to develop their knowledge in the legal-football field.

You are a law graduate who are looking for a solid specialization in a postgraduate degree with a high employability perspective

You are a lawyer who wishes to expand its professional dimension

Thanks to the involvement of the AIAF and the welcoming support of the most important football entities, you will enjoy the possibility of living an exceptional experience: networking events, professional visits, mentoring, international trips, internships in top-level organizations. Students will be presented with some of the most common issues in the football industry. You will be asked to deal with – and handle – specific situations.

- ✓ Applying your skills
- ✓ Evaluating the nuances of football business in light of your own learning
- ✓ Suggesting alternatives for the resolution of the cases at hand.

CARRIER OPPORTUNITIES

Enjoy learning with the academic body of more than 50 active professionals who carry out their careers in the most prestigious law firms and institutions. The Master will provide a unique opportunity to connect you with a comprehensive network of relevant professional contacts. As a pioneering program, it implies 100% of the teachers of the master to be high ranking Law professionals actually dealing on a daily basis with Football, which in turn favors the most immediate immersion in the sector, generating unique and exclusive career opportunities.
